Activities

No two-week programme is the same, meaning every session at camp is unique. Our two excursion days per week are also always to different attractions, so that student get to visit a variety of different places in Toronto, Quebec and Niagara during their time at camp. We offer an action-packed schedule with 24 full of exciting activities for students.

Food and Accomodation

Wonderful local families provide support and assistance while students adapt to the lifestyle and demands of learning a second language. Every student in homestay has their own room, bed, closet, study area and three nutritious meals per day. No more than 2 Vietnamese students live in the same homestay, but with the age group from 7-11 years-old, they can stay together, with parents and stay in the same homestay area.

Transportation

All student will get the transportation card to moving. In the first and second day, homestay family will guide the students the way to go to school and how to use the public transportation. They have to go to school by themselves
